

06 October 2021,

To whom it may concern,

COMMENDATION LETTER

The School of Continuing and Lifelong Education is pleased to confirm that Sahil Shaikh participated in the AI and Machine Learning for Youth Innovators hosted online by the National University of Singapore, and which was completed on 11 September 2021, and emerged as a contributing member of the winning team in the FINAL PRESENTATION competition which took place during the period of the programme.

The student demonstrated excellent teamwork, determination and commitment to the task assigned throughout the programme.

We wish the student very best in any future endeavours.

Yours Sincerely,

Professor Mehul Motani
Department of Electrical & Computer Engineering, Faculty of Engineering

Teaching faculty of AI and Machine Learning for Youth Innovators
Hosted by School of Continuing and Lifelong Education in collaboration with Faculty of Engineering, National University of Singapore